Re: PSHE this half term

Dear Parents/Carers,

We hope that these PSHE newsletters enable you to feel included in their learning, and to continue discussions about the core themes and activities at home with them, if you should wish to do so.

As you may know, our school follows the Coram “SCARF” PSHE programme, which is a spiral curriculum where children revisit the same six core themes each year. As they move through school, the children build upon their prior knowledge and Understanding, as the lessons increase in complexity and depth.

This half term’s core theme is: Valuing Difference

If you would like to view the home activities linked to this unit then this link takes you to the correct SCARF webpage: <https://www.coramlifeeducation.org.uk/scarf/home-learning-unit-2>

Valuing Difference is something that we take very seriously as a school and so it is always part of our ethos and expectations. It also ties in nicely with the work we will be doing in school this half term exploring different religious and cultural celebrations, and also ‘Odd Socks Day’ in anti-bullying week.

If you would like to know more about PSHE at our school, there is additional information on our webpage: <http://www.southwilford.nottingham.sch.uk/pshe/>

Many thanks for your support and cooperation,

Mrs Burke

(PSHE Lead)
