Re: EYFS Nativity – Dublin & Oslo classes

Dear Parents/Carers,

The children in our Reception classes (Dublin & Oslo) are going to be putting on their own Christmas play called 'The King is Born'. There will be two performances this year so everyone can enjoy the performances in a quieter atmosphere. The dates are Wednesday 10th December AND Thursday 11th December at 2.15pm.

The performance will roughly be 45 minutes long. This event will be ticketed, with two tickets available per child for each performance. We ask that you only see the show once. The extra tickets are for grandparents and relatives. We appreciate that this is a special moment in your child's reception year and want you to be able to share it with extended family members. If you are attending the performance the doors will open at 2.00pm.

Most costumes are provided by school, but if your child needs anything specific, such as a white t shirt or leggings, then we will let you know.

If your child has black pumps we would like them to wear these – please bring them into school in a named bag, from Monday 8th December. If you do not have pumps there is no expectation that you buy any, your child will perform in their normal school shoes.

Some of the children may also be bringing home lines for the play soon, so if your child does, please help them learn their part at home to enable them to feel more confident saying them in front of an audience.

You will receive the tickets for the show in your child's book bag on Monday 1st December. When you attend the performance, please make sure you have your ticket.

We hope that you will all enjoy the show!

Many thanks,
The EYFS Team
